This is the day that all sins are forgiven. So what things happened anciently on this day?

- They did no work on this day.
- They afflicted their souls.
- Animals were sacrificed.
- The High Priest made atonement for himself, the tabernacle, the altar & the people.

So what do we physically do today?

cover·ture - Noun: Pronunciation: KUV-e-cher or KUV-e-choor

Protective or concealing covering.

The legal status of a married woman, considered to be under her husband's protection and authority.

Definition:

Sir William Blackstone, in his 1765 authoritative legal text, Commentaries on the Laws of England, said this about coverture and the legal rights of married women:

"By marriage, the husband and wife are one person in law: that is, the very being or legal existence of the woman is suspended during the marriage, or at least incorporated and consolidated into that of the husband: under whose wing, protection, and cover, she performs every thing; and is therefore called ... a feme-covert...."
